OUR PRODUCT

BookNook's synchronous online learning platform is designed to help schools implement high-impact tutoring, revolutionizing how schools approach small-group reading intervention.

Leveraging research-based technology, BookNook lightens the load for educators, delivering a seamless, interactive learner-leader experience in both in-person and virtual settings. Our sophisticated algorithm selects engaging lessons from our platform, allowing schools to focus on what matters most. So, whether you have plenty of time and personnel or need support to implement a high-quality tutoring initiative, we're here to help.

Our dedicated team is committed to helping you achieve significant gains for your students. When you partner with us, you can expect our steadfast support and engagement to ensure reading growth and achievement.
